The Centre for Rehabilitation of Torture Victims and the editors wish to thank all those who contributed to the making of this book: CRTV practitioners who are the authors of papers, reviewers, translators and technical editors and all others who put their utmost effort into completing the book. In this respect we are very grateful to Vesna Kutlesic, PhD, clinical psychologist, whose suggestions were more than helpful in finalizing the English translation.

We also thank our numerous clients who gave us their trust by seeking treatment in our Centre and who took part in research projects, as well as the Association of ex-detainees in Belgrade, represented by Petar Fjodorov, and the associations of former camp detainees in Bijeljina and Bratunac in Bosnia-Herzegovina for their cooperation.

In addition, we would like to thank all others that work in the field of torture prevention and rehabilitation of victims, particularly our colleagues from YUCOM Belgrade for their initial assistance in the legal field, Office of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) in Belgrade for their support and advice, the B.A.N network for their understanding and the International Rehabilitation Council for Torture Victims (IRCT) for providing a place for global exchange and helps keep the issue of torture on the agenda of the decision-makers.

Very special thanks to the European Commission, the UN Voluntary Fund for Victims of Torture, CAFOD, the OAK Foundation and FRESTA programme for providing the much needed financial support for the work of our Centre over the years. Indeed, this book would not have been possible without them.
