

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We would like to express our gratitude to all those who made it possible to conduct and publish this research. FRESTA/NAB Programme of the Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs has provided financial support for the research. CAFOD and the Southeast European Refugee Assistance Network (SEE RAN) of the FRESTA/NAB Programme also support various other projects of International Aid Network (IAN), particularly the project of the Centre for Repatriation, within the framework of which this research was conceptualised.

Helle Schierbeck, Bjarne Solberg and Jonathan Dames have shared our enthusiasm at the time when the idea of a regional research into refugee and returnee population was only emerging.

Partner NGOs from the region – Human Rights Bureau in Tuzla, Dalmatian Solidarity Committee (DOS, offices in Split, Knin and Benkovac), Centre for Development, Tolerance and Activism (CRTA, Karlovac) and the Youth Council (OMS) Milići – have take part in conducting this research. Nevena Žunjić (DOS Knin), Danijela Konjić (Human Rights Bureau Tuzla), Aleksandar Đukanović (OMS Milići) and Tatjana Vukobratović (CRTA Karlovac) have helped us in the regional co-ordination of the research, while twenty-five field researchers worked meticulously in the field. We would also like to thank other colleagues who have supported us in the process: Ivana Trkulja (SEE RAN Secretariat Sarajevo), Helene Bach (FRESTA/NAB), Maja Mateljan (DOS Split), Branka Rajner and Elizabeta Lukačević (Human Rights Bureau Tuzla), Dijana Lazić (Civic Democratic Initiative Project, Beli Manastir) and Saša Lalić (Association for Civic Alternatives and Ethnic Relations, Vukovar) without whose understanding this research could not have been conducted.

The FRESTA NGO Transition and Development Programme (FRESTA TDP) enabled us to present preliminary results of the research to a wider audience of interested experts and NGO activists and obtain from them useful suggestions for the making of this publication.

Photographer Marc Schneider has contributed his photographs, a part of the series «Crossing Borders».

This publication is dedicated to our respondents from Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia and Serbia, who have given us their trust and shared with us their experiences of living in the post-war communities.
